Life in Lincoln City

Located just one and a half hours from the bustling city of Portland, Lincoln City is ideally situated along seven miles of sandy beach on the central Oregon Coast. Lincoln City has more than 7,000 friendly residents, but during the summer months the population can easily swell to more than 30,000 as visitors from all over the world enjoy the area's beaches, forests, rivers and Devils Lake.

Enjoy the many benefits of this small town whose residents are known for their generosity, caring and community involvement. Lincoln City's residents appreciate the advantages of a close-knit community while enjoying the recreational and cultural benefits found in large cities.

Life in Lincoln City offers:

- Fabulous dining opportunities, resorts and golf courses.
- A state-of-the-art culinary center offering community classes focusing on local foods from organic vegetables to natural meat and an array of fresh seafood and shellfish.
- A cultural center with art galleries and an offering of classes for all ages in art, dance, music, literature and theater
- A newly-built community center featuring a rock climbing wall, swimming pool and water slide, youth activities including after school programs and camps, and a wide array of fitness classes for all ages.
- A thriving art community featuring numerous galleries and an art center.
- Abundant recreational opportunities such as fishing, cycling, scuba diving, surfing, kayaking, kite surfing, bird watching or hang gliding.

Spend the day flying a kite, watching the whales, browsing through unique gift shops and galleries, shopping at retail shops and an outlet mall, sampling local wines or enjoying fine Northwest cuisine.
