

Proof of Income Fact Sheet

A patient applying for financial assistance allowance must provide proof of annual income, which may consist of:

- The most recently filed federal income tax return.
- Copies of past pay stubs for the past 3 months.
- Written verification of income from employer.
- Statements from Social Security Administration.
- Copies of 3 months current bank statements for all accounts.

Annual income consists of:

- Wages earned by members of the household during the past year and/or possible future wages.
- Income from interest and dividends.
- Self-employment income.
- Child support or alimony which may require a copy of court record.
- Unemployment benefits.
- Workers compensation.
- Life insurance proceeds.
- Pension or profit-sharing payments.
- Social Security payments.
- Other income deemed taxable by either the Internal Revenue Service or the Oregon Department of Revenue.