

Samaritan Introduces a MyChart Makeover!

MyChart has been redesigned with a more modern appearance that is consistent between the website and mobile apps.

New look and feel

- New style for background, icons, fonts
- New menu structure to better group related features together

The screenshot shows the MyChart home page with the following elements:

- Navigation Bar: Messaging, Visits, Health, Billing, Settings, and Log Out.
- Welcome! Section: Includes a message card with an envelope icon and a calendar icon.
- To Do Section: Lists overdue health reminders (e.g., Colonoscopy) and upcoming office visits.
- Quick Links Sidebar: Contains icons for sending messages, E-visits, refills, test results, appointments, and health summaries.
- Care Team Section: Lists team members with their roles and specialties.

Callout boxes highlight the following changes:

- Message Card: "Tabs have been changed to icons. Hover over an icon and the dropdown menu will appear." (Points to the envelope icon in the message card)
- Navigation Bar: "Quick buttons/links have been moved to the sidebar so that your health information is front and center on the home page." (Points to the navigation icons)
- Care Team: "Convenient quick buttons allow you to send messages or appointment requests to members of your Care Team." (Points to the message and appointment icons in the Care Team section)

Updated Mobile Interface and Features

The MyChart mobile apps have been redesigned with a more modern appearance that matches the new changes to the MyChart website

- Patient photos you upload from the app will update your patient photo in MyChart (web).
- You will be able to see your Care Teams and Goals.
- Provider photos will be displayed next to messages and result comments.

Push Notifications for MyChart Mobile

When you have new information in MyChart, such as a new message or new test result, you can elect to be notified in real-time with push notifications on your mobile device.
